

MRS. S. T. PAULETT'S HOUSE PARTY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HAMPTON-SIDNEY, VA., August 7.—One of the most enjoyable social events of recent days in this section was the house party given by Mrs. S. T. Paulett to her nieces, Miss Martha Venable and Miss Mildred Rives Richardson. The residence of Mrs. John Venable was the place of entertainment, and every condition was favorable to the success of the party.

The guests were Miss Hattie K. Bugg, Miss Carrie Kyle, Miss Hattie C. Paulett and Miss Anne L. Richardson, all prominent names in the college festivities, and Mr. Reed Edmunds, of Farmville, Va.; Mr. J. H. Lyle, of Lexington, Va.; Mr. J. Marion Stratton, of Lewisburg, W. Va.; Mr. Dan Owen, of South Boston, Va.; Dr. John Owen, of Houston, Tex.; Mr. W. Pugram Warren, of Bacon's Castle, Va.; Mr. P. T. Atkinson, of Chancery, Va.; Mr. Venable Cradle, of Texas; Mr. E. G. Egan, of Shepherd's, Va., and Mr. G. A. Wiltsen, Jr., of Raphine, Va., all, with two exceptions, old Hampden-Sidney students.

WHEN THEY GOT HOME POUND DWELLING BURNED.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOYDTON, VA., August 7.—Fire destroyed the dwelling-house of Mr. Varus Hall, who lives a few miles north of Clarksville on Saturday afternoon. The entire contents of the dwelling were destroyed. Mr. Hall and his wife had gone to Clarksville, and on their return found their home in ashes. He says there was no fire in the house, and is at a loss to know how the fire originated.

GLAZIER INSTALLS ITS NEW OFFICERS

AMEND THE COUNCIL'S RULES

Important Changes Made—Dinwiddie Preparing for Telephone Service.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., August 7.—At the meeting of the Glazier Encampment No. 7, I. O. O. F., held to-night, the officers elected for the ensuing term were installed as follows:

Chief Patriarch, C. W. Callear; Senior Warden, J. J. Hamilton; High Priest, A. K. Watkins; Secretary and Treasurer, James Hancock; Junior Warden, J. R. Smith.

The installation ceremonies were conducted by District Grand Deputy S. D. Rogers, assisted by E. E. Hinckley, grand outside guard of the Grand Encampment of Virginia. Refreshments were served after the installation, and a pleasant social hour was spent.

The Grand Encampment of Virginia will meet in Norfolk next Tuesday, in which body Glazier Encampment will be represented by S. D. Rogers.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENT.

At the meeting of the Common Council last evening, Mr. Stratton offered an amendment to one of the rules governing the two branches of that body.

The amendment provides for a reduction in the number of members composing the Finance Committee, to four from the Common Council, and two from the Board of Aldermen. As at present existing the Finance Committee has eleven members, seven from the Council and four from the Board of Aldermen, one-third of the members of the latter body and practically one-third of the membership of the Common Council. The amendment was referred to the Finance Committee for consideration and report, and should be passed there will probably be a general resignation of the members of the committee to allow reorganization on the new basis.

Boys Dies from Peritonitis.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., August 7.—Howard, a son of Rev. A. E. Rector, of San Antonio, Tex., died at the hospital to-day from peritonitis, aged twenty years. The little boy was born April 21, 1887, on the day of the birth of his mother, on route home from New York. Methodists of this city looked after the comfort of the mother, and the boy was taken to the hospital, where he died.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

A meeting of citizens of Dinwiddie was held here to-day, Dr. E. C. Powell presiding at which the question of organizing a telephone company to give service in the county was discussed and decided. Subscriptions to stock were started, and the meeting adjourned to a later date to perfect an organization, and take such further steps as may be necessary. The change is to be located at DeWitt, and the service will be extended throughout the county, to central points as well as to private dwellings.

COLORED CHURCH TROUBLES.

Rev. Eli Tartt, who, on account of the recent factional troubles and disorders in his congregation at the Harrison Street (colored) Baptist Church has been enjoined by court from holding any religious services or business meetings in that church until further orders, has rented the big skating rink on Washington Street, and has issued a call to the members of his church to assemble at religious services to be held there to-morrow night. He announced that he will preach on the subject of "My Soul Is Among Lions." It is probable that those in the church who oppose the pastor will refrain from attending this meeting.

In the meantime the Harrison Street Church is closed to both factions, and will remain closed by order of the court until after September 9th, when under direction of a commissioner of the court, a meeting of the male members will be held to peacefully settle the unfortunate differences. In this congregation, and decide whether or not Pastor Tartt shall be retained or deposed. It is said the male members are about evenly divided on the question of suspending Tartt.

CAPTAIN MARTIN'S BRIDE.

Miss Driskill Weds Well Known Norfolk and Western Merchant.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., August 7.—Captain Samuel J. Martin, of Roanoke, a well known conductor on the Norfolk and Western Railway, and Miss Geneva Thomas Driskill, of Appomattox, well known residents of that country, were married quietly in the parlor of the Hotel Carroll this afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Gilby C. Kelly, pastor of the Court Street Methodist Church. There were a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties present to witness the nuptials.

After the marriage Captain and Mrs. Martin drove to the station and took a west-bound Norfolk and Western train for a trip to Cincinnati and other points of interest in the Western States. They will be at home in Roanoke to friends on August 20th.
